We like ommm. We like touch. We like volleyball and frisbee. We like music of all kinds, sometimes ambient, sometimes something else and sometimes, nothing at all. We prefer no labels. Pansexual has been used by some to describe their Burning Man. That label would be fine, but none of us feel obligated. We are Emo. We feel free to express emotion. If we're feeling good, we spread it around. If we're feeling down, we acknowledge it. We share a sense of play and a willingness to question our own, sometimes irrational, boundaries.
